

Fact Sheet

Who we are: Crumley & Associates, PC is a 13-office consumer-based law firm handling civil cases including auto accidents, workers' compensation and Social Security disability.

History: Bobby J. Crumley, Crumley & Associates founder and chief executive officer, started the firm with one office in Asheboro, NC in 1989. Today, the practice handles cases throughout North and South Carolina. Offices are located in Central and Western North Carolina (Western offices are independently owned and operated by Crumley Roberts & Hayes, PC under agreement with Crumley & Associates, PC), and in South Carolina with offices in Columbia and Greenville (South Carolina offices are independently owned and operated by Crumley Roberts Hayes Brown Curry & McLaurin, PC under agreement with Crumley & Associates PC). In October 2000, the firm was awarded The Business Journal's Fast 50 award, placing 14th among the Triad's 50 fastest growing privately owned businesses.

What we do: The practice is limited to consumer-based civil law. All clients have both an attorney and a case manager assigned to their case. The attorney handles legal issues while the case manager keeps the case moving along and answers non-legal questions when the attorney isn't available. Attorneys and case managers are supported by in-house private investigators that assist with accident investigation, accident reconstruction, witness statements, evidence collections and more.

Types of cases:

Automobile Accidents

From minor injuries to death by motor vehicle, Crumley & Associates helps injured people recover from their personal injuries and property damage.

Workers' Compensation

Injuries to workers can be caused by a variety of factors, and can range from sprains and strains to serious disfigurement and death. Crumley & Associates workers' compensation attorneys and case managers handle a wide variety of workers' compensation cases including repetitive motion injuries and other occupational diseases.

Social Security

Disabled workers may qualify for social security benefits. Crumley & Associates will help you file for benefits and will represent you all the way through the appeal process, up to and including hearings before an administrative law judge.

Wrongful Death and Other Personal Injuries

Death caused by another's negligence and other personal injuries resulting from such things as slip and falls, dog bites and defective products happen every day. Crumley & Associates has the resources to investigate and handle a wide variety of personal injury cases.

Staff: Crumley & Associates' fine professional staff includes attorneys, case managers, private investigators, management and administrative support personnel. Additionally, our team of Spanish-speaking staff is ready to help with translation needs.